

2024 CALENDAR

BE4ALL has worked diligently to recognize the days of observation from the cultures and faiths that make up our skilled workforce. However, if you do not see a day of observance that you feel should be recognized, please feel free to reach out to BE4ALL, and we will gladly take a moment to learn more about that occasion and endeavor to recognize it entirely in the future.

Please post this calendar in a public space, such as a break room, lunchroom, or other communal meeting areas. By doing this, we hope you can use this resource to start meaningful conversations that will enable you to learn more about your colleagues and develop a new understanding of the different cultures, ethnicities, and faiths that make up the sheet metal industry.

NATIONAL CIVILITY MONTH

To recognize that people being civil to each other is what makes the world a better place. This holiday was founded to help the world remember to treat others the way we wish to be treated ourselves — with kindness, empathy, and respect.

1 | EMANCIPATION DAY

Canadians are invited to reflect, educate, and engage in the ongoing fight against anti-Black racism and discrimination. On March 24, 2021, the House of Commons voted unanimously to officially designate this as Emancipation Day. It marks the actual day in 1834 that the Slavery Abolition Act of 1833 came into effect across the British Empire. Many people are not aware that Black and Indigenous Peoples were once enslaved on the land that is now Canada. Those who fought enslavement were pivotal in shaping our society to be as diverse as it is today. Emancipation Day celebrates the strength and perseverance of Black communities in Canada.

9 | INTERNATIONAL DAY OF THE WORLD'S INDIGENOUS PEOPLE

This day was created by the United Nations to celebrate the culture of indigenous people on a global scale.

13 | LEFT-HANDERS DAY

An annual event when left-handers everywhere can celebrate their sinistrality and increase public awareness of the advantages and disadvantages of being left-handed. These events have contributed to the general awareness of the difficulties and frustrations left-handers experience in everyday life and have successfully led to improved product design and greater consideration of their needs by the right-handed majority.

18 | HAWAII ADMISSIONS DAY/STATEHOOD DAY

On August 21, 1959, Hawaii was officially admitted as the 50th state of the union. After being turned down in 1919, 1935, 1947, and 1950, this became a day to celebrate. Also called Statehood Day, it is recognized as a state holiday on the third Friday of August.

23 | INTERNATIONAL DAY FOR THE REMEMBRANCE OF THE SLAVE TRADE & ITS ABOLITION

This international day is intended to inscribe the tragedy of the slave trade in the memory of all peoples. In accordance with the goals of the intercultural project “The Routes of Enslaved Peoples,” it should offer an opportunity for collective consideration of the historic causes, the methods, and the consequences of this tragedy, and for an analysis of the interactions to which it has given rise between Africa, Europe, the Americas, and the Caribbean.

26 | WOMEN'S EQUALITY DAY

This day not only commemorates the passage of the 19th amendment in 1920, but also calls attention to women's continuing efforts toward full equality.

BE4ALL has worked diligently to recognize the days of observation from the cultures and faiths that make up our skilled workforce. However, if you do not see a day of observance that you feel should be recognized, please feel free to reach out to BE4ALL, and we will gladly take a moment to learn more about that occasion and endeavor to recognize it entirely in the future.

NATIONAL HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

(September 15 to October 15) Aims to recognize and celebrate the many contributions, diverse cultures, and extensive histories of the American Latino community.

NATIONAL RECOVERY MONTH

Aims to increase public awareness surrounding mental health and addiction recovery, and to promote and support new evidence-based treatment and recovery practices, the nation's strong and proud recovery community, and the dedication of service providers and communities who make recovery in all its forms possible.

2 | LABOR DAY/LABOUR DAY

Celebrates the economic and social contributions of workers. It was first nationally recognized in 1894 both in Canada and the United States. The holiday began as an event organized by trade unions in support of workers who had been on strike in order to obtain higher wages, and to celebrate their victory.

10 | WORLD SUICIDE PREVENTION DAY

An opportunity to raise awareness of suicide and to promote action through proven means that will reduce the number of suicides and suicide attempts globally.

11 | PATRIOT DAY/NATIONAL DAY OF SERVICE AND REMEMBRANCE

Patriot Day is observed in the United States to commemorate the lives of those who died in the 2001 terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center in New York City and the Pentagon in Virginia and those who perished when the hijacked United Airlines Flight 93 crashed in Pennsylvania. Also recognized as the September 11 National Day of Service and Remembrance, this day is a permanent tribute to those killed and injured on 9/11, and to the many brave individuals who rose in service in response to the 9/11 terrorist attacks.

16 | MEXICAN INDEPENDENCE DAY

Celebrates Mexico's declaration of independence from Spain in 1810.

20 | POW/MIA RECOGNITION DAY

Observed across the United States to stand with military veterans and members of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, and Coast Guard to honor the nation's Prisoners of War (POW) and Missing in Action (MIA) troops, and their families.

23 | INTERNATIONAL DAY OF SIGN LANGUAGES

To raise awareness of the importance of sign language in the full realization of the human rights of people who are deaf.

29 | GOLD STAR MOTHER'S AND FAMILY'S DAY

A day of remembrance in the U.S. dedicated to honoring the mothers and families of military service members who have served their country heroically and died in the line of duty.

30 | NATIONAL DAY FOR TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION

Canadian federal statutory holiday which gives the public a chance to recognize and commemorate the intergenerational harm that residential schools have caused to Indigenous families and communities, and to honor those who have been affected by this injustice. The day honors the children who never returned home and the survivors of residential schools, as well as their families and communities.

EVENTS

GLOBAL DIVERSITY AWARENESS MONTH

An awareness month with the goal of promoting respect toward various cultures. We live in a multicultural society, and embracing the values of various cultures only strengthens our understanding and appreciation of the world.

ISLAMIC HISTORY MONTH (CANADA)

Established by the Canadian Government in 2007, IHMC aims to celebrate, inform, educate, and share with fellow Canadians the rich Muslim heritage and contributions to society: contributions in sciences, humanities, medicine, astronomy, and other disciplines that have greatly benefited human progress.

NATIONAL DISABILITY EMPLOYMENT AWARENESS MONTH

A month to pay tribute to the accomplishments of the men and women with disabilities whose work helps keep the nation's economy strong; Americans recognize this month by reaffirming their commitment to ensure equal opportunity for all citizens.

NATIONAL BULLYING PREVENTION MONTH

A month-long event to prevent childhood bullying and promote kindness, acceptance, and inclusion.

2 | ROSH HASHANAH BEGINS

Also called the Jewish New Year, this is one of Judaism's holiest days: It commemorates the creation of the world and marks the beginning of the Days of Awe, a 10-day period of introspection and repentance that culminates in the Yom Kippur holiday.

10 | WORLD MENTAL HEALTH DAY

An international day for global mental health education, awareness, and advocacy against social stigma. The day provides an opportunity for all stakeholders working on mental health issues to talk about their work, and what more needs to be done to make mental health care a reality for people worldwide.

10 | WORLD SIGHT DAY

An international day of awareness, held every October to focus attention on the global issue of eye health. It is a call to action for people to prioritize their own eye health, and for leaders to ensure eye care is accessible, inclusive, and affordable to everyone, everywhere.

11 | NATIONAL COMING OUT DAY

An annual LGBT awareness day observed to support lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people in "coming out of the closet" and expressing their sexuality to the world in order to end the stigma.

11-12 | YOM KIPPUR

Also known as the "Day of Atonement," this day is considered the most important holiday in the Jewish faith. It marks the culmination of the 10 Days of Awe, a period of introspection and repentance that follows Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year.

14 | INDIGENOUS PEOPLES' DAY

A holiday in the United States that celebrates and honors Native American peoples and commemorates their histories and cultures.

14 | THANKSGIVING (CANADA)

In Canada, Thanksgiving is celebrated on the second Monday in October. Many Canadians use this day to visit family and friends who live far away or have them to their homes. Most people prepare a special meal during the long weekend. It is traditionally celebrated on this date as it signifies when the Canadian harvest will be complete.

14-18 | CONSTRUCTION INCLUSION WEEK

This week is the first effort to harness the collective power of general contractors, specialty contractors, subcontractors, and suppliers. The objective is to build awareness of the need to improve diversity and inclusion in the construction industry by providing content and resources.

16 | SUKKOT BEGINS

Commemorates the 40 years the Jewish people spent in the desert on their way to the Promised Land after escaping slavery in Egypt. It also has roots as a ceremonial expression designed to give thanks for a bountiful crop.

16 | INTERNATIONAL PRONOUNS DAY

Seeks to make respecting, sharing, and educating about personal pronouns commonplace. Referring to people by the pronouns they determine for themselves is basic to human dignity. Being referred to by the wrong pronouns particularly affects transgender and gender non-conforming people.

23-25 | SIMCHAT TORAH

A celebration, also called "the joy of Torah" in Hebrew, often accompanied by dancing and singing, to mark the completion of the annual reading of this section of the Bible. Each week of the year, congregations around the world read a particular portion of the Torah, called a parashah, in a specified order. Observant Jews do not work or travel on this yom tov or "holy day."

NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

A time to celebrate rich and diverse cultures, traditions, and histories and to acknowledge the important contributions of Native people. It's also an opportune time to educate the general public about tribes, to raise general awareness about the unique challenges Native people have faced both historically and in the present, and the ways in which tribal citizens have worked to conquer these challenges.

MOVEMBER/MEN'S HEALTH AWARENESS MONTH

An annual event involving the growing of moustaches during the month of November to raise awareness of men's health issues, such as prostate cancer, testicular cancer, and men's suicide. Since 2003, Movember has funded more than 1,250 men's health projects around the world, challenging the status quo, shaking up men's health research, and transforming the way health services reach and support men.

1 | DIWALI

A "festival of lights" that celebrates the triumph of light over dark and good over evil, and the blessings of victory, freedom, and enlightenment. Primarily celebrated by followers of the Hindu, Sikh, and Jain faiths.

1-2 | DIA DE LOS MUERTOS (DAY OF THE DEAD)

A Mexican tradition celebrating deceased loved ones, sparking conversations about how different cultures approach death and remembrance.

8 | NATIONAL ABORIGINAL VETERANS DAY (CANADA)

Observed annually, this day recognizes the important contributions and sacrifices made by First Nations, Inuit, and Métis people in service to Canada for more than a century.

11 | VETERANS DAY (U.S.) / REMEMBRANCE DAY (CANADA)

In the U.S. — For honoring military veterans of the United States Armed Forces. The observance originated in 1919 on the first anniversary of the 1918 armistice that ended World War I and was known as Armistice Day. It was commemorated in 1921 with the burial of an unknown soldier from World War I at Arlington National Cemetery in Arlington, Virginia.

In Canada — A day for all Canadians to remember the men and women who served and sacrificed for their country. Every individual, young and old, is encouraged to pause, give thanks and remember. Canadians recognize Remembrance Day, originally called Armistice Day, every November 11 at 11 a.m. It marks the end of hostilities during the First World War and an opportunity to recall all those who have served in the nation's defense.

13-19 | TRANSGENDER AWARENESS WEEK
